MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

SUBJECT:

[REDACTED]
Senator Hayden

Personnel Referral from

1. As you know, Senator Hayden is one of the Agency's best friends in the Congress. He probably exerted more effort in defeating the Mansfield Resolution than any other member of the Senate. He is also Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

2. Senator Hayden rarely makes a request of this sort, but he has asked me personally to see if anything can be done on behalf of one [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

3. I strongly urge that a genuine effort be made to locate Miss [REDACTED] if there are any openings for which she might be qualified, although I have, of course, made no commitments whatsoever to the Senator. He has made only one request to me, and that is that if our people contact Miss [REDACTED] no mention be made of the fact that the Senator was at all instrumental in bringing about a review of her case. I gave him my solemn word that we would honor his wishes in this matter.

4. I would appreciate it if you would let me know when and if anything develops, as I would like to inform the Senator.

SECRET

The Director again expressed his appreciation to Senator Hayden for his great efforts in connection with the Mansfield Resolution. The Senator conceded that the many letters he sent to his colleagues might have had something to do with the outcome. He pointed out that a great many Senators who were listed as cosponsors of the bill really were not aware of what they were sponsoring. Others, such as the late Senator Barkley who had no particular knowledge of the Resolution until just before the Floor debate, reacted immediately and violently when reminded by Senator Hayden of the importance of the matter. The Senator added that the Rules Committee was in the process of reporting out a new rule which would prevent multiple sponsorship of Senate bills. He feels that this rule, which will put the Senate on the same footing with the House on this matter, will be a very important improvement in Senate procedures.
